Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Alan Miller, a 6-foot 6-inch Dakota Wesleyan University senior basketball star, has a remarkable list of achievements on the basketball court; and,

WHEREAS, Alan holds the Dakota Wesleyan University record of most points in one season, most career points at DWU, most free throws in one season, most career free throws, and most field goals in one year; and,

WHEREAS, Alan is an inspiration to South Dakota's young cagers, having led Stickney High School to the State B title in 1981; garnering the "Mr. Basketball" award from the Hansen and Anderson publication for being the best prep player in the state; having been chosen all-SDIC for three years running; having been chosen All-District 12 twice; twice making the All-America honorable mention team; winning the SDIC scoring title three times; ranking third in the nation (National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics) in scoring with a 29.5-point average and sixth in the nation as a sophomore with a 26.3-point average; and having been chosen SDIC tournament Most Valuable Player last year; and,

WHEREAS, Alan Miller set the all-time South Dakota college scoring record on December 28, in overtime, and he is being honored for this feat by DWU faculty and students on the first day of the South Dakota Intercollegiate Tournament on January 2; and, with several games yet to be played in this basketball season, every point Alan makes will break his own phenomenal record; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a South Dakotan who is such an inspiration to young South Dakotans through his example of excellence in all his undertakings, both on and off the court:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 2, 1985, as

ALAN MILLER DAY

In South Dakota, and I join Alan's wife, Shelley, his daughter, Tara, and his family, friends, and teammates in congratulating him on this remarkable achievement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirty-first Day of December, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Four
